We are getting tired of Prof. Jones and his Hibernia Hillside reporter. He will keep on till he gets the dimes or the dollars.

J. W. PARKER will be one of the strongest men for Governor we have yet had in California. He would be a governor in fact as well as in name.

We shall publish to-morrow a paper filled with part of Mr. Paige's Sacramento speech, which pertains to himself and his canvass for Congress. He spoke in such a manner as to offend the governing order, and must lose by it a effect favorable to the workers of this district who may need it.

The organ of the Pixley, yesterday published a list of U. S. Senators and their respective financial standing. Senators set down as $500,000 [illegible] are quite $2,000,000. Pixley places Newton at $40,000 minus rather than Arrington the modern scale of susceptibility, be sized in accordance with the Contract and Finance Committee.

The conservative Hillside tool that stepped off its usual pursuit to criticise [illegible] the Independent, published at Washington for fourteen months and subsidized by the Congressional ring as an ethical study. It is rather unexpected tool, we may add, for Pixley to employ against his wayward brother publication, which has proceeded from wonder to wonder and has now reached a point where [illegible] Pixley, Pilkering, Pikley, Pitchi, Pikering, Pilkey, Pitch, Pixley, Pickering, etc.

The Oakland Tribune is disappointed in its organ. It was reported yesterday that a change had come over the spirit of its political dreams, and that it was to come out for Pixley and Irish. The readers can judge whether the change has taken place or not from its last issue. It continues to support Pixley, and refuses to support Irish. Verily, consistency is not the virtue of the Tribune, which has been for a long time past the organ of the Democratic party in this county. We do not see why it should not make a good Senatorial candidate, but as we know, she would probably decline to vote for his party. Bosworth McCauley Tolla tells us he has a land title somewhere. Mitchell is a capable lawyer, but unworthy. Mitchell is a man, and may yet be a statesman, and if he will but [illegible] he may be elected. Pixley is a politician, and cannot be elected. Irish is a politician, and cannot be elected. Pixley is a politician, and cannot be elected. Irish is a politician, and cannot be elected.

It was objected [illegible] to take Gorham's speech on the [illegible] and [illegible] the only thing of the kind [illegible] nature. However, since that paper has been compelled to follow the [illegible] the Chronicle is, can all sorts of [illegible] Pitchford, after mature [illegible] character, is not to be numbered in the same category with Pitchford and Pixley, especially by way of contrast.

We have sometimes noted that there was a perfect [illegible] between the two Pitchfords, Pixley and Pikering, Pixley and Pikering, Pixley and Pikering
